SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, April 6, 1927.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant Governor Arthur H. James) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, We thank Thee for this beautiful sunshine falling upon the earth. Without the sunshine the world would sink into an icy and chilly waste. The sun is a symbol of Thy great love. May Thy love abide in our hearts, for without this an immoral world would sink into nothingness.

So this morning we have a glimpse of Thy face by faith. We thank Thee and praise Thee for all Thou hast done for us. May the very heart of God be in our own hearts, that selfishness may die out of our souls, and that we may live as men ought to live.

We pray Thy blessing upon the deliberations of these Senators. Be with them. Keep them. Preserve them in health. And the man whom we would honor this day—we pray Thy blessing to rest upon him. Bless the presiding officer, and help us all to glorify Thee, we ask. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 527, (House Bill No. 541), on third reading, entitled:

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation, the Senator from Lebanon, Mr. Freeman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lebanon, Mr. Freeman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I do not care whether the Senator from Lebanon, Mr. Freeman, commits himself or not; I am going to ask him a question: Is this not a polite way of defeating the bill?

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, the Deputy Attorney General has just called our attention to the fact that a number of new amendments have been written into this bill and it is his opinion that they are unconstitutional. We did not think we ought to pass out of committee and litter up the calendar with a bill which has, perhaps, unconstitutional provisions. We desire to give it further consideration.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, do I understand, then, that the bill is to be recommitted for amendment?

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, the bill is to be recommitted for further consideration.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, to the extent of amending the bill?

Mr. FREEMAN. Mr. President, perhaps so.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, it is very vague, but I am taking the Senator's answer.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

The ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Frank E Baldwin) in the Chair.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, this is a personal privilege that I request not only for myself but for other members of the Senate. We are today seeing this beautiful display of flowers, and of course they mean something. They particularly mean something in the life of our Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie.

On every highway, on every railroad,—at every crossing, we see the sign "Stop, Look and Listen", but ofttimes the sign is not read until it is too late. And so it is on the highways and the byways and the crossways of life. In our hearts and in our minds there is always the sign, "Stop, Look and Listen", and we, even in our travels along the roads in life, sometimes fail to stop, look and listen.

It would be well if each of us, on an occasion such as this, would stop and look at ourselves in the mirror and then listen to the voices of the angels, and listen to the voices of those who feel that we should live our lives in harmony and thereby have a better understanding of one another; and not, in our daily toils, try to find the shortcomings of our fellowmen but try to find those good things, those lovely things, those highgrade and highstanding things that we in this and other communities feel that we are on this earth to perform.

The lives of men may be divided into different phases. They may be divided into religious life, and the social life. That is the division of the average man in his journey through life. But to the man who takes an active part in politics there is a fourth division,—his political life; and that part of that man's life is, to him, a big important part.

A man to be recognized by the political constituency which he represents must be somewhat different from the average man in everyday life. He must have some qualities that are different from the average qualities of the ordinary citizen,—there must be imbedded somewhere within his bosom a friendlier feeling and a kindlier disposition and a happier make-up, and a goodwill even greater than that of the average citizen as to the welfare of his fellowmen; and unless a man has that imbedded in him he cannot succeed in his public life. And I want to say to those of us who know our friend from Allegheny, Senator Leslie, that that particular spirit must be deeply imbedded in him, for were it not he could not for these many years have held the outstanding position that he has held and that he does hold in the city from which he hails. He has lived honored and respected by his fellow citizens. The best proof of that is that into the City of Harrisburg today there is coming one trainload after another of the best citizens of Allegheny County, to pay deference to him on his sixty-third birthday.

To him this must be a wonderful day. It will be one of those that will exist in his mind for many years to come. When men will travel hundreds of miles and undergo inconveniences, which they however, think are pleasures, in order to be present at a dinner to be given to this particular Senator on this night, it shows their gratefulness to him; and, in return, I know he will feel grateful unto them.

I feel, Mr. President, and the rest of the members of the Senate I know feel that we are extremely happy to congratulate the Senator from Allegheny today on this his birthday. We are extremely anxious to say to him that we wish as he goes down the pathway of life,—because after a certain age we go down the pathway of life, wnether we like to admit it or not—that that pathay will be strewn with roses, in his decline each and every new day will be better, happier and grander, than the last and that the final day will be far, far distant; but, when it does come, that the glory of the pleasures, and happiness that he has enjoyed during his journey down the last road of life will so outweigh and outbalance the other occasions that when that last great day comes he will remember, during these declining days, which I hope will be many, that the happiness will outweight every disappointment; and then will come that great day when he can feel coming to him the thought, from us, "Our hearts, our souls, our lives are all with thee, Senator Leslie, all with thee."

The PRESIDENT. The Chair takes very great pleasure in recognizing our very good friend from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, on this his anniversary day.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President and members of the Senate of Pennsylvania and friends: It is beyond me at this moment to give expression to the sentiment that has been called forth by what has been said by my honored friend from Philadelphia. I trust that it will suffice to say that my heart is swollen with joy and with appreciation of what little of what I have done in the years that I have lived, and the recognition that is shown to me by my fellowmen in this great body, the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Certainly, it is to be appreciated by any man to know that his friends can keep in mind an epoch of his life and remember his natal day and by their own will and wish and thought give expression to the sentiment that they feel toward him.

This day a year ago, on a similar occasion, occurred in Pittsburgh a meeting immediately following my return from the States of Arizona and California after a serious illness. I was honored thusly. I never sought publicity. I have been always reticent from the fact that men who live a life of activity and strenuous work in behalf of their fellowmen should not always be on the front page of the newspaper; but unfortunately in the game of politics men who are active—and as newspapers are now organized in opposition, in factional politics, you have to be identified or they would not have any news for your friends. But I have never had any fear,—I never gave any thought to that that kind of publicity would ever have any weight on my life. I did not ignore it, nor did I ridicule it. I just endured it. And now, at this late day, the friends that I have made in over a quarter of a century in active politics are responding from their own free will, and do those little things that are great and grand to men that arrive at my age, and they are appreciated by me.

I thank the Senator from Philadelphia, thank every person here, for the expression of appreciation; and trust that all of you that have been invited—with which I had nothing whatever to do, but left it entirely in the hands of the committee—will be present, because you do see and you do hear at least a few of the most representative citizens of Allegheny County vent their expression of their thought of me. I thank you.

Resolved, That this House congratulate Mr. Alexander upon the perfect accord and harmony which has existed between himself and the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth throughout the entire session; and be it further

Resolved, That the House express the hope that such congratulation is not premature.

RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1216 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. SCHILLING offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 6, 1927.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1216, Printer's No. 369, File Folio 2227, entitled "An act to amend the title and sections one and two of an act approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five, (Pamphlet Laws, six hundred and seventy-six,) entitled 'An act providing for the burial of certain persons who are, have been or shall be soldiers, sailors or marines designated as 'deceased service men' defining the term 'deceased service men' authorizing county commissioners to provide markers and burial plots for such deceased service men at the expense of such county in which they shall die or have a legal residence at the time of their death, and providing for the burial of widows of soldiers, sailors or marines,'" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1092, file folio 5459, entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-three of the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine (Pamphlet Laws four hundred twenty) entitled "An act to provide revenue by taxation" as amended by excepting from the provisions thereof taxi cab companies was defeated on Tuesday, April 5, 1927, be reconsidered.

Mr. McBRIDE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was defeated last night and I am of the opinion that the impression of the members of the House was that it was exempting the eight mills on gross receipts of taxicab companies. The purpose and intent of the act is to explain the act of 1889, which exempts taxicab companies from this eight mills. It is merely to place a proper construction on the act, that is all this bill does. It has been a very much mooted question as to whether or not this tax is collectable, and whether or not the Auditor General has a right to collect it. To clarify the act of 1889 is the purpose of this bill. Hoping that the members of this House will agree with me on this explanation, I would ask you to vote in favor of the reconsideration of this bill at this time.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. It is a fact, Mr. Marcus, if this bill is passed, that it exempts the taxicab companies?

Mr. MARCUS. That is exactly the impression I have tried to put across to the minds of the members of this House. The taxicab companies have not been paying. The Auditor General says he has a right to collect it. There was a hearing before the tax commission in 1923 and they were of that opinion and recommended that they should be taxed. Again, the tax commission in 1925 also said it was the intent of the act of 1889 that they should pay this tax, and if they don't pay the tax, that they should. The purpose of this act is to place the proper interpretation on the act of 1889 which says they are not under the provisions of this act.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. If this act should become a law, will the taxicab companies be taxable or not?

Mr. MARCUS. I still do not understand the question of the gentleman from Lancaster.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Does this act, if it becomes a law, exempt the taxicab from taxation?

Mr. MARCUS. That is correct. They have never paid it and the purpose of this act is once and for all to determine the position of this tax, whether it is collectible or non-collectible. The legislative intent of the act of 1889 specifically says that it is not under the provisions of this act.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Can you give any good reason why taxicab companies should be exempted from such tax?

Mr. MARCUS. The reason I would give is, practically they are under the provisions of the capital stock tax; they are paying that tax now; they are paying the gasoline tax and the motor license tax and therefore if there is a benefit in the doubt it should be given to the companies that operate for the exclusive benefit of the public.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Don't all other transportation companies pay this same tax?

Mr. MARCUS. Not all of them.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. I think it is a matter for the judgment of the members of the House as to whether these taxicabs should be exempted from this taxation, and for my part I see no reason why they should, and I feel, for myself, disposed to vote against this reconsideration.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not want to become nasty in the House and I don't want to hurt anyone's feelings. Another thing, I don't know whether it is a question of being recorded on these bills or not to satisfy some private institutions but it is a question of delays as far as the business of this House is concerned, and to clarify the situation I will call your attention to rule 26, "No member shall be permitted to record his vote who neglects to vote when his name is called by the Clerk." I propose to challenge the vote of every person who gets up here and delays the business of the House in that manner.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman, under his question of personal privilege will be spread on the Journal.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in connection with the bill which has just passed, I want to say that a similar bill was introduced by the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Gyger, House Bill No. 615. Both bills were referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. When my bill, No. 194, was reported out of committee, it was done with my agreement and understanding that Mr. Gyger was to be designated as co-sponsor. Through an error in reporting the bill this was not done. Out of fairness to Mr. Gyger, I desire to have my understanding with him entered on the record.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's remarks under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I again want to call your atention to this bill. Six years ago it was distinctly understood with the Fish Commission if the age was reduced from eighteen to sixteen years to require a license to fish, there never would be an occasion to raise the fish license. I ask you to vote this bill down.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has now been amended to a dollar and fifty cents for a license fee. That is only an increase of fifty cents. Now the truth is, that to spend one dollar to go fishing some place where there is no fish is a dollar wasted. If we want, however, to have any fishing we will have to pay for the propagating of this fish. There is another bill which I have presented here asking that an appropriation out of the general fund be made for the propagation of fish. It didn't seem fair to me at the time that bill was presented and I have not asked to have it brought out of committee. I believe that he who dances should pay the fiddler and they who fish should help to raise the fish in order that the streams may be stocked and they have something to fish for. I recognize, however, the fact that in the orthern part of the state they have plenty of fish and is is perhaps of no benefit to them, but a great majority the other parts of the state need these fish in order to ve something to fish for unless they have to drive many iles to do so. For my part I have not heard of any one my section who is objecting to the dollar and fifty cents cause they know they are going to get fish to stock their reams.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote which House Bill No. 1237, file folio 3707, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph second of clause one of section twenty-nine of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws seventy-three) entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" as amended supplemented and extended providing that certain corporations may act as treasurers and tax collectors for municipalities school and poor districts was defeated on final passage on Monday, March 28, 1927, be reconsidered.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, this was a bill that provided that the banks could act as tax collectors and treasurers for counties, townships and school districts. We found out afterwards that it was not the intent of the sponsors of the bill that the bank shoud act as tax collectors but that the desire was for an act to permit the banks to act as treasurers of municipalities and of the school districts. That is being done now in many instances throughout the state, and I have understood that the Department of Banking has said that at the present time it is not legal. This bill is offered in order to legalize that act. There can be no objection to that. The reconsideration of the vote, therefore, is for the purpose of amending this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I notice by the Philadelphia "Inquirer" and other Philadelphia newspapers an account, or an apparent account, of the vote before the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities on the Old age pension bill yesterday. I am the secretary of that committee and I am making this statement with the consent of the Chairman. I have no desire in the matter to take care of myself, but I wish to say to the members of the House that the vote as quoted in the newspapers and the manner in which the members of the committee are reported to have voted is not correct in the Philadelphia newspapers. It is not a correct statement nor an approximately correct statement as to the way the members of that Committee voted, and I am making this statement on the floor of the House in order that certain members of the committee who have been misquoted in the newspapers may be protected. I want to make it perfectly clear that the statement as published in the newspapers is not correct as to how the members of the committee voted on the old age pension bill.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 263, entitled:

An Act to repeal section two hundred and sixty-five of an act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred and forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. F. N. MOORE.—Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to call the attention of the members of this House to the fact that this is simply a repealing of the Sunday laws of the state of Pennsylvania so far as it relates to fishing. I wish to call your attention to the position of the farmers of the State of Pennsylvania relative to fishing parties coming upon their premises on Sunday. I live close to the line of the state of New York and they have their fishing on Sunday, and the hoodlum parties, the element that comes out from the towns and cities under the guise of fishing roam over your fields and crops and do damage, steal fruit and chickens, and so forth. It is the rag-tag element of God's creation that forage on the farms of this Commonwealth under the guise of fishing. Decent people do not depredate upon the farms, but the element that takes advantage of that opportunity are a wholesale nuisance, and as a farmer I protest against opening the fences to allow that element to encroach upon peoples' homes so that a farmer is compelled to stay at home with a shot gun and a bull dog to protect his property. Further I wish to call your attention to the fact that this law relative to the Sabbath was given at Mt. Sinai by a higher authority of law than any of us and this is simply taking issue with every right of God's laws to please men in the Commonwealth.

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, one would think by the consistent lobby against this bill that the sponser was either seeking to legalize Sunday murder or to legislate against the morals of the Commonwealth. This bill has been termed "The Sunday Fishing Bill" and efforts have been made to make it offend the sense of decency of members of the House, just like a bad name given to a dog to put him in ill repute. I will repeat, the name of this bill is a misnomer. I hold no grief for those who legislate for an open and commercialized Sunday because I am unutterably opposed to such a proposition. I hold no brief against the members of this House who cannot reconcile an affirmative vote for this bill either with their feelings or with their consciences. They represent, as I try to do, the people of their community. There has been no greater tribute of friendship from those members of the House whose assistance I value in the frank expressions to me on this bill advising me that conditions prevent them from supporting the bill either on account of their personal convictions or because of their constituency. There will be no retaliation on any negative vote cast on this bill. I don't question the sincerity of purpose of any of these friends in the House. There are, however, others aside from them who do not differentiate between the right and the desire of reputable honest citizens who are lawabiding and that element which says, "Thou shalt not." This bill does not legislate by law the act of Sunday fishing but takes out of the fish code that reference which makes it unlawful to fish on Sunday. There are still provisions in the law under which a man under the Blue Laws and other nuisance laws can be brought to the bar of justice on a charge of committing a nuisance or something of that kind. I admit it takes out from the fishing code the penalty under that particular code. Fishing is not a sport in the sense of a commercialized sport; it is more of a recreation. The passage of this bill would scarcely increase the amount of Sunday fishing over that now done throughout the year and against the law. The fact that it might depopulate the streams is unfounded from the reports and research and from the support of the bill by members of the Isaac Walton League and other men in high standing. The sin of Sunday fishing is only upon those who feel that it is like breaking the Ten Commandments. It is not for this state of any other state, by an act, to make it lawful to fish on Sunday. Except the states of California and Pennsylvania, no state makes it unlawful and do you say to me that citizens of other states are less Christian and less lawabiding than the citizens of Pennsylvania? There is, however, one state making a condition, and that is one of the main purposes of this bill. New Jersey two years ago passed a provision penalizing Pennsylvania and the citizens of this state. It makes it unlawful to fish on Sunday by the citizens of any other state whose state makes it unlawful in their state. In the eastern part of Pennsylvania for a distance of probably one hundred miles there are anywhere from one to three thousand people owning property in New Jersey, around the lakes and around the streams of New Jersey, residing there during the summer, spending their weekends at their summer homes, taking out a foreign license in New Jersey, allowing them to fish except on Sunday, when all the rest of the fishermen in the state may fish. There is that penalty against our reputable citizens that this bill in main corrects. We feel that we are only asking for the rights of Pennsylvanians as people who are law-abiding and who want to comply with the law. I want to again say, in conclusion, that I hold no brief for the legalizing of Sunday sports or of commercializing them, but I do ask the members of the House to give this measure a fair consideration. I hold no brief against those friends who vote negative on the bill and nothing in retaliation will be done against their bills.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I know what fishing on Sunday means. I am not here to say that it is any serious sin to fish on Sunday, but this bill is the opening of the Sunday question. We have so far in Pennsylvania kept the Sabbath sacred, and because Ohio, New York, New Jersey or any other state sees fit to break off all these laws is no reason why Pennsylvania should. The whole intent of this bill is to open the Sunday question, and if that is once done, you ladies and gentlemen know what it means. The code has worked very nicely in this state so far. The Sunday law has been kept as nearly as the human can do it. There are flagrant violations; I agree with that; but that is no reason why we should offer another one. Ladies and gentlemen, I hope you will permit this law to stand as the law now reads and vote this bill down.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not think there is a member of the House but what has the highest respect for our good friend, Mr. Horn. Mr. Horn has a lot if constituents who believe in having this bill passed. I am not going to try to dictate to your consciences or ask you to vote against this bill. Every one of you members has a conscience and all I want to do is to direct it a little bit and for you to ask yourselves whether or not you want to legalize sports on the Sabbath day at any time. As Mr. Armstrong has told you, this is a pretty good way to do it.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I believe somebody should say something in favor of the poor fish. Ever since George Washington was president of the United States and the Blue Law was enacted in 1784, all the fish in all the streams of this Commonwealth have learned from one generation to another that on one day in seven they could eat all of the worms and flies that fell into the stream without any danger of being caught. To destroy that long assurance and allow people to throw in a bait with a worm or a fly on Sunday will soon depopulate our streams and we won't have any poor fish left.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1803, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause (e) section three hundred six and to add section three hundred twenty to article three of the act approved the second [illegible] of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and thirty-six) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employe in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation and providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bil lon third reading?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mrs. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1803 be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mrs. PENNOCK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent of the House to offer a motion at this time.

The SPEAKER. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the motion may be offered.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Committee on Elections be discharged from further consideration of House Bill No. 1817, (Senate Bill No. 1), file folio 833, entitled:

An Act relating to elections and primary elections providing for and regulating the approval of voting machines by a State Board of Voting Machine Examiners their purchase care custody and safekeeping by counties and their preparation for and use at such elections regulating election returns and providing penalties and that the chairman be instructed to report the bill out.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, this is the Davis voting machine bill. Now, I feel this is a mater of such vital importance to the people of Pennsylvania at this time that this House at least should have an opportunity to vote on it. This bill has already passed the Senate and I feel that if we want efficient election reform in this state this is the best way to get it. Whether you vote for the bill or not I think that we should at least have the opportunity to cast our vote either for or against it. I ask for a roll call.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARIG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MARCUS. I will ask the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, if he is not aware that the House Elections Committee reported out the bill for the constitutional amendment on the voting machine?

Mr. SARIG. I am aware of that fact.

Mr. MARCUS. I will further ask the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, if he is not familiar with the fact that we had a full discussion on the voting machine bills, the bill relating to the mandatory opening of ballot boxes and the one relating to the optional use of voting machines, and if it was not fully discussed time and time again during this session.

Mr. SARIG. Does the gentleman mean that it was discussed on the floor of the House, or where does he mean it was discussed?

Mr. MARCUS. Among all the members.

Mr. SARIG. To what extent was it discussed among the members of the House?

Mr. MARCUS. To what extent I don't know. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I again ask the members of the House to support the elections committee of the House and vote this motion down for the reason that an optional voting machine measure passed in the session of 1926 introduced in the extraordinary session by the late John P. Harris, reintroduced in this session by his brother, Frank J. Harris, who succeeded him in the Senate, and that the bill was received by the House Elections Committee on last Tuesday and on the following Wednesday it was reported out and is now on your calendar. The House Elections Committee has given these bills careful consideration. Appreciating the viewpoint of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, and realizing that we cannot please all of the members with election bills I ask the members of the House to give the committee on elections a vote of confidence and vote this motion down.

Mr. ZAK. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as a representative of the seventh district of Allegheny County outside of Pittsburgh, I think you should give every member consideration and a square deal on the voting machine question. As a member of this House, I was elected and counted out in the seventh district of Allegheny County by your politicians members of this organization. ———

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. STADLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. STADLANDER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not speaking on the motion but on the bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the motion before the House.

Mr. ZAK. I think we should all give our constituents a square deal. I don't see why they object to these voting machines. Now ladies and gentlemen, it is too bad that they try to boss you and try to kid you along. I can tell all you members that I wish you would all go and vote for a voting machine and the motion to discharge the committee.

Mr. SARIG. In answer to the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny, I merely wish to state that you all realize that the constitutional amendment puts the matter of election reform away off in the future; that it will be sometime before the people of Pennsylvania see any voting machines if that bill instead of this one is enacted into law. I believe most of us who were here the other week when people came here from all over the state representing civic organizations and fraternal organizations know the people were demanding that they be given a square deal and that when a vote is cast it should be honestly counted. You all realize the matter of the purity of the ballot is the very fountain-head of free government, and I cannot see why a matter that has been an issue in the campaign, that has been one of the Governor's plans, why the matter of ballot reform should be scotched in the committee and why should the members of this House not have an opportunity to express the concensus of opinion of their constituents here on the floor. Whether you vote for it or not is a different matter, but I feel you should have an opportunity to decide whether you want this bill or the other one. It will be up to the Governor to say which one he favors.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Sarig and Mr. Zak and were as follows:

YEAS—13.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 561, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 579) entitled "An act to fix the salary and mileage of the members of the General Assembly and to provide for the furnishing of such postage stationery and supplies as may be necessary for the conduct of their offices and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith" increasing the compensation of members of the General Assembly.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, am I correct in the understanding that this is the bill which increases the salary of the members?

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker, I will explain in regard to this bill and let you know what you are voting for. This bill was amended from its original form to pay three thousand dollars. I talked to the Governor about it and he has O. Ked it and if it is passed it will be signed by him.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think the State of Pennsylvania is paying me all that I am worth here. My conscience will not stand for any increase of personal salary. This increase of salaries is the principal thing we have been doing here and somebody will have to answer to their constituents before the session of 1929.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, is there any way that we can amend this bill so my friend Mr. Moore can have his salary reduced five hundred dollars?

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.
